ORDER NO. 9441

FOR ADMISSION OF CAESAR RODNEY INSTITUTE AS AN INTERVENOR

I. BACKGROUND

1. On June 18, 2019, this docket was opened in Order No. 9418.
2. Order No, 9418 set a deadline for Petitions for Leave to Intervene (“Petition” or “Petitions”) at July 16, 2019.
3. CRI timely filed a Petition.
4. On July 17, 2019, I set a deadline for objections to Petitions at July 22, 2019.
5. No one objected to the CRI Petition.
6. On July 24, I issued Order No. 9438 which, inter alia, continued a decision with respect to the CRI Petition.
7. Also on July 24, I wrote a letter to CRI asking for additional information as to how its Petition satisfied the requirements of Rule 2.9?
8. On August 1, 2019, on behalf of CRI, its Policy Director, David Stevenson, filed an Amended Petition for Leave to Intervene responding to my letter.

II. DISCUSSION

9. Petitions for Leave to Intervene are governed by PSC Rule 2.9 (“Rule 2.9”).<sup>1</sup>

10. In its Amended Petition for Leave to Intervene, CRI stated that its participation is in the Public Interest because of its particular skill set and interest in a free market economy. CRI further stated that its market views will not be represented by any other participant in this docket.

11. I am satisfied that CRI has now included in its Petition the requisite information to satisfied the requirements of Rule 2.9 and thus should be admitted as a party in this docket.

12. No other party has objected to CRI's Petition.

III. DECISION

13. CRI having alleged in its Amended Petition that it satisfies the requirements of Rule 2.9 for intervention as a party, and I agree, CRI's Petition is hereby GRANTED.

14. Representatives of CRI shall be added to the service list in this docket.
